TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

BEEF STEW WEEKEND

Next weekend is Beef Stew Weekend. Please be generous with your donation of food or money. The poor in our area depend on our continued assistance.

RECTORY SUMMER HOURS

Please Note: The Parish Office will close at 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday during August.

ALTAR SOCIETY

The Altar Society is a delightful group of volunteers who quietly give of themselves in order to support the parish by providing care and attention to our spiritual home. The Society consists of two primary groups. One provides the necessary linens for each and every Mass. This team of dedicated women take turns washing and ironing for all of us to experience the proper and dignified sacrifice of the Mass. Members of the second group rotate once every six to eight weeks and devote approximately one hour attending to the altar flowers, sacristy, sanctuary, sacramentals and help prepare the church for the transition from one liturgical season to another. Fr. Edison is our clergy moderator assigned to give guidance to this valuable ministry. If quiet, prayerful, unassuming but vital ministry is calling you, we would love to welcome you as a new member! In addition to the tasks at hand, this ministry gathers for a social breakfast twice a year and is always invited but never pressured to pray the Rosary after 9:00 Mass Monday through Saturday.

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETING

On Saturday, September 10 at 9:30 a.m. sharp all members of the Altar Society of both OLW and STC are asked to attend a meeting in the lower church of St. Theresa's.

We will discuss revitalizing this ministry and offer updated objectives to help form a current mission statement for this highly valued church ministry. Any parishioners who are interested in joining this group of volunteers are also welcome and encouraged to attend. Following the meeting, we will commence our Communion Breakfast at Terra Rustica on North State Road, Briarcliff. Please RSVP to the rectory, 941-1646 before Thursday, September 8th, to attend the meeting and/or the complimentary breakfast.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES OF MARY COLLECTION

Thank you for your support and prayers for the Medical Missionaries of Mary who came to our Parish last weekend. Through your generosity, they received $3,174 to help them with their missionary work.

FALL BIBLE STUDY

Who are the Prophets of the Bible?
Come and join your fellow parishioners starting Thursday, September 8 at 7 p.m.

as we begin to study the role of the Prophets. Nearly every week at mass we hear, "A reading from the Book of the Prophet....Isaiah, or Jeremiah or Hosea...." The prophets urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today as they draw us to a closer relationship with God. Our program will run for 10 consecutive Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. as we watch video presentations, engage in a guided discussion and take home study. You need not attend each week and do not have to have any prior bible study experience. We are a small group of parishioners who enjoy the fellowship of studying God's word and learning more about our very rich Catholic faith. The program is FREE. Steve Watson at 917-270-8395 is our program coordinator.
